Dear Leonard:

1. We're just completing a series of highly effective Support Conferences, and I'm sort of heaving a sigh of relief to have them out of the way. From reports of those who attended, the meetings proved instructive and useful to all. We will send agenda and conference material covering all conferences to Headquarters soon (Security, Personnel, Logistics, Finance).

25X1A6a 2. a. I have been informally advised that a fairly junior man [REDACTED] has been designated as Support Chief for [REDACTED] If this is true I'm somewhat concerned for a number of reasons:

- (1) It's a big and rather complicated job.
- (2) The logistics and finance chiefs will be senior to the support chief.
- (3) Our experience since senior, experienced personnel have been coming out is so good that we shouldn't reverse the trend.

25X1A6a b. You might want to check on this one and it's possible, of course, that my information isn't completely accurate. We haven't been getting info copies of exchanges re [REDACTED] personnel matters lately.

25X1A2e c. Also I'd like to get the matter of [REDACTED] assignment to [REDACTED] 1A6a settled as soon as we can, and it's tied up with the above.

d. I'm presuming, of course, that your Career Board is still selecting the people to be assigned to support chief jobs.

3. Hope you'll have something for me soon on your trip out here.

4. I'm sending promotion recommendations to Headquarters for [redacted] from GS-14 to GS-15. They've done very good jobs over an extended period and have actually demonstrated capability worthy of the next higher grade. If the actions can be processed soon enough it would be a nice gesture if you could bring word of their promotions with you when you come out next month (I hope).

5. Otherwise there's nothing of current major interest which I need to bother you with personally.

My very best as ever,

[redacted]
